Allen Charges Contempt

ACCUSES EX-BANK OFFICERS

Attorney-General Acts in the Grand Jury Scandal;
Goes into Court

Attorney-General J. Weston Allen appeared before the Superior Court today and instituted contempt proceedings against former officials of the closed Hanover Trust Company. Although the names are not made public, it is said that the men are those who were charged by Mr. Allen yesterday with attempting to influence the Special Grand Jury which returned in the discharge of the jurors.

It had originally been reported that Mr. Allen would ask for warrants for the arrest of those guilty of the alleged jury-tampering. The suit he sought proceedings in contempt is regarded as significant. A criminal case is tried by a jury, contempt proceedings are handled by a judge.

In discharging the jury, Mr. Allen specifically mentioned a director and another official of the Hanover Trust company, whose actions were under

Twas su m September
fer the Democratic Store

Our frens cum in here an left 23 7-10% more dough than tha did in Sept. 1921. Tha wuz 349954 transactions made (we dont callem sales) coz we dont sell nuthin; more than all the folks in Brookline, Newton, Wellesley, Natick, Framlingham an then sum. An not only the biggest increase in any store in tha country (we believe) but we had a bully time er doin on it. Sum tha time the papers wouldn't print our dope (sum call it adz). I don kno why, we payem all rite, an we dont kick much bout location er anythin, an we dont holler bout the other fellers stuff, perfectly willin tha should run thar own business, but we seem to be in rong sum'n'ow. Guess the stars musta ben rong side up when we wuz born. But whatthadevildowecare? The Popul are with us an everybuddy knos it an when tha popul are with yer, dont worry bout any leetle 7x9 Individuals who may be ayn yer; an September wuznt much ov er month nuther.

England Conservatory of Music. Prof. Hall said that the raid came while he and several other men were in the room, and that Webster and his companions represented themselves as police inspectors and demanded $200 as a price of silence. The professor agreed to pay the money at a certain meeting place, but brought the police with him and caused Webster's arrest.

action for $10,000 brought by Evan against Cornelius Vanderhill
Whitney, son of Harry Payne Whitney.

The letters, with photographs of Evan and Adair in bathing suits and in living poses, were introduced by Leary to substantiate his charge that Miss Fontaine obtained annulment of her marriage to Adair by fraud and perjury, and that her accession when she obtained annulment, that she and Adair had not lived together after the wedding, was not true.

The letter, of a most intimate nature read by Leary and dated March 27, 1919, showed "Diet" to be the pet name for her husband and "Tale" her husband's pet name for her. The letter said:

"Oh, those sweet, happy days
when you would come home to me, my little wife. God, I loved you—"

BOY AND REVOLVER TAKEN FROM MOVIE

Willie Howell, a fourteen-year-old messenger boy, found a loaded revolver in a drawer at his home at
No. 47 Washington street, East Somerville, and took it with him
when he went to see a wild west thriller picture at a Cross street
Somerville moving picture theatre.
Another boy told the manager of the theatre and Willie's wild west career ended right then for the manager called a policeman. He was booked as a juvenile delinquent.

Rum Laden Planes Have Trap Bottoms to Fool Inspectors

Washington, Oct. 5.—Land and seaplane equipped with trap bottoms so as to dispose quickly of their illegal cargoes of liquors in event of detection are operating in the boating trade between Montreal and New York and between ships at sea and Montreal Point and Boothbay, Long Island. Prohibition Director Day of New York today so informed Commissioner Haynes in New York.

In case of contact with prohibition enforcement officials,
the trap bottoms are sprung, and the cargoes disappear. He estimated that twenty-one boating planes were in operation.

ALL CARS LOOKED ALIKE TO HIM

Reginald Parkhurst of No. 141
Park street, Lynn, wanted a taxi to take him home. The driver was proving none too ready. There was no cash in sight, but a dandy car was parked nearby. Reggie got in, pushed a couple of things and the car started.

Richard White of West Green street, Lynn, owner of the car came out of the building in front of which the car had been parked.
No car.

Several hours later, the North Shore police having been given a description of the car, Metropolitan Officer William Rowe stopped a respective car near Swampscott. In it was Reggie. He had lost his way.
The only thing that interfered with his driving to Los Angeles was the lack of gas.
He will be arraigned on a charge of driving a car while intoxicated and the larceny of an automobile.

SOME BEAR! YES 'T WAS BIG AS JERSEY COW

"That bear was almost as big as a Jersey cow. Never saw such a specimen for size. It was twice before in my summer place up in Maine, at North Haven, but never such a brute
as this one. And I wasn't armed.
Didn't even have a club."

"There was a fierce look in his eyes. I am no longer a Marathon runner. Flight was impossible. My ten-fifteen days are over. There was only one thing for me to do—stand up and fight that bear bare-handed."

"They tell me this chap Bill is a good fighter. Well, I don't like to boast. But I slow that bear—say, who is that fellow?"

"That's Harry K. Gaudin, the Buffalo Bill of the African jungle," said Auditor Rupert Carven, who had been listening to ex-Mayor Andrew J. Peters telling about the bear.

"He's coming over to see Mayor Carvey. Tell him about that bear."

"Why should I?" demanded Sir Peters. "I haven't finished telling you yet. That bear was dead when I saw him."

The former Mayor's visit to the City Hall was in connection with a law suit he is interested in. He was greeted by all the old-timers.

Mayor Carvey presented Busine with the key to the city.

WEE COUNTLESS NOW AN AMERICAN GIRL

New York, Oct. 5.—A wee countless great grandchild of the former Car of Russia, is here to become the adopted daughter of Mrs. Wendell Phillips.

The Countess de Renée de Mondesean is two and a half years old.
Mrs. Phillips, telling the child's history, said:
"Her father was Count Henry de Mondesean, shot to death by the Bolsheviki in an attack on the Royal Palace in Petrograd in 1915. Her mother was Countess Claude de Mondesean, who died at age 30 in Rome in July, 1921. When the Count was slain the mother was spirited to England, where the child was born.
Later the mother came here, leaving the child with friends at Shooling."

Prescribes American's Green Edition as Best 'Eye Comfort'

ENTHUSIAST by the optical advantages of the Boston
American's Green Edition, William E. Whitecomb, optometrist, of No. 47 Winter street, made up a little initialogram, as follows:

Good for the eyes.
Restful to the optic nerves.
Easy to read.
Eligible.
No spectacles required.

"As to the last," added
Mr. Whitecomb, "it is a fact that the Green Edition will probably hurt our business.
People who read it will be less apt to need eye glasses than others, for green absorbs the ultra violet rays and relieves eye strain. In this day of so much reading
by the glare of electric lights and jolting trains and subways, the public needs all the eye comfort it can possibly get, and that's why I can prescribe the Green Edition of the American, outside of its news scoops and other qualities."

Dr. Hill Hospital, Woodwich, London, expressed the wish that I adopt the

ROUTED BY GAS BOMB, KILLED IN GUN FIGHT

Peoria Ill., Oct. 5.—The bullet-riddled body of Henry Miller, river front habitue, lay in a morgue here today, and Frank L. Boswell, railroad detective, was in a hospital with a bullet in his leg, casualties of a spectacular gun fight on the banks of the Illinois River.

Boswell, in making his rounds, passed Miller's shock. The detective said today that Miller fired ten shots after telling Boswell to mind his own business. Boswell ran for the shelter of a railroad car, but dropped with one of Miller's bullets
in his left leg.

Neighbors of Miller braced the fire of Miller's gun and carried Boswell to safety, while railroad detectives and police rushed to the scene.
Gas bombs were used when the police failed in their attempt to rout
Miller by setting fire to the shack.
The harrassed man succeeded in extinguishing the flames while hidden inside the rude building.

Finally he staggered into view, crying from the gas fumes, but still showing fight. He was shot down as he leveled his pistol at his besiegers.

TURKS FIRE ON U. S. WARSHIP EMBARKING REFUGEES

Washington, Oct. 5.—An American destroyer has been bombarded by the Turks while taking refugees at Aivalik, according to an Athens dispatch made public today by the Greek Legation. No details were given.

(Neither State Department nor Navy Department has any confirmation of the above report.)

Athens, Oct. 5 (By International News Service)—Greece is making preparations today for a new war. King George II. issued a proclamation calling upon the people to support a conflict against the Turks in Thrace.

Mobilization has been started. The Greek revolutionary committee has called for volunteers. The Thracian army is being reorganized.

Turks in Neutral Zone on Constantinople Route

Constantinople, Oct. 5 (By the Associated Press)—British general headquarters reports the appearance of Turkish Nationalist cavalry at Kander, in the Constantinople neutral zone.

Kander is approximately sixty-five miles east of Constantinople, near the Black Sea coast of the neutral peninsula.

This is the first reported violation by the Kemalists of the Constantinople neutral zone, although Turkish cavalry has repeatedly violated the neutral zone around Chakrak, on the southern shore of the Dardanelles. The French peninsula after the only direct approach on Constantinople for land forces.

Greeks to Appeal to United States

Athens, Oct. 5 (By the Associated Press)—It is understood that Greek officials here are considering an appeal to the United States for assistance in obtaining a just solution of the Thracian question.

Constantinople was called here by a Constantinople wireless message picked up last night purporting to give the armistice conditions arranged by the Turks and the allies at the Mudania conference.

The conditions outlined in the message include the occupation of eastern Thrace by allied forces and Turkish gendarmes up to the line of the River Maritsa and evacuation of the province within ten days by the Greek army, failing which the allied fleets would blockade Greece.

It will be exceedingly difficult for those now governing Greece to tell their followers that the chief aim of the revolution—the retention of Thrace—cannot be achieved.

The document signed by King Constantine abdicating the throne of Greece, yesterday reported lost, has been recovered.

Thrace Problem Still Prevents Settlement

London, Oct. 5 (By the Associated Press)—The reports of the first two days' proceedings of the allied general conference with the Turkish Nationalists at Mudania have produced a sanguine feeling here.

The latest information to the Associated Press, contained in a dispatch which left Constantinople shortly before midnight, was to the effect that, notwithstanding the generally hopeful status of the situation, the question of Thrace was still barring the way to settlement.

While the allies have agreed to give over Thrace to the Turkish army in thirty days they have not decided to the Turkish request that the western line of the Maritsa River be occupied by allied troops as protection against a Greek flank attack on the Turkish occupying army.

The determined attitude of the Greek army and the new Athens government is also to be reckoned with. Colonel Plastiras, chief Greek delegate, made plain to the other conferees that the Greek military leaders were determined to resist every attempt to restore Turkish sovereignty over Oriental Thrace.

U. S. Supply Ship Off for Near East

Washington, Oct. 5.—The supply ship Bridge leaves today for Constantinople, the Navy Department announced.

Turks Deny U. S. Consuls Right to Visit Prisons

Smyrna, Oct. 5 (By the Associated Press)—The exact status of the American Consulate General here will come before the National Assembly at Ankara this week for discussion.

It has been a matter of increasing importance owing to the desire of the consular officers to visit the Turkish prison camps to ascertain whether any American citizens are among the Greek civilians rounded up in Smyrna.

At least fifty such cases have been reported to the consulate or relief committee.

The question at issue is whether the American consular officials previously assigned to the Greek regions shall automatically assume a

Tewfik Says Sultan Yields to Kemalists

Paris, Oct. 5.—Tewfik Pasha, Grand Vizier of the Constantinople government, has informed the Turkish Nationalist government at Ankara, says a Yavuz Constantinople dispatch, that he and the Constantinople government are ready to conform with the Ankara government's desires in every respect. It is believed, however, adds the message, that the Sultan will retain the throne until peace is signed.

Believe Me, Each Victim Was a Governess

FREED TO REENTER BAY

Gives Clue That It Is Hoped Will Solve Gloucester Mystery

Gloucester, Oct. 5.—Question is raised today whether the woman whose body was found floating near Salt Island, off Briar Neck, may have been a governess recently employed in the family of Thomas Harrington, a Chicago man, now staying at a cottage at Bass Point.

A look at the facts as they stand in the body of an effort to solve the mystery of the woman's death, it is found that the governess who had been employed in the Harrington family was a woman named Mary Harrington, who was a governess in the family of Thomas Harrington, a Chicago man, now staying at a cottage at Bass Point.

How Do Coal Men Get Away With Their Prices?

Old King Coal is a funny old soul. In Ontario, Canada, the Canadian Fuel Commission has fixed the price of American anthracite at $13 a ton.

In Boston people are paying $17.25 a ton for anthracite now, yet the American anthracite "refined" is quoted at $15 a ton in Montreal, it is shipped from Maine.

Declares Boston Rates Would Be Better if More Business and Less Golf Was in Order.

Mayor James M. Curley won his way in a verbal clash, at the differential freight rate hearing at the State House today, with Chief Attorney-Examiner Charles F. Gerry, representing the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Mr. Gerry, who is conducting the hearing, started to prevent the Mayor speaking in the interests of the Port of Boston at this time on the ground that it was against orderly procedure.

He added when Corporation Counsel R. Clark Sullivan suggested, and Mayor James M. Curley, senior counsel for the petitioners agreed, that the Mayor be sworn as an informal witness and be allowed to proceed.

Mr. Curley said that the Mayor made sarcastic reference to the Interstate Commerce Commission taking itself seriously that it did.

At the conclusion of a vigorous demand for freight rates more fair to Boston the Mayor wound up with a jab at the Republican representatives at Washington being more interested in "golf, aviation and other meaningless sports" than in Boston's commerce.

Mayor Curley said: "The decay of Boston's import and export business has been the result of the Interstate Commerce Commission and the operation of that body in the administration of certain laws governing interstate commerce and the exacting of rates which have been a constant source of complaint to the Interstate Commerce Commission as an administrative body."

OCTOBER inherits September's second moon, which falls this evening, in the constellation Pices, just under the Great Square of Pegasus. The new moon phase of October occurs on the 20th, in the constellation Virgo.

Charles Major

READ IT AGAIN!

The story opens with an account of the Cas-koden family, one of whom, Edwin—who tells the story of Princess Mary Tudor and Charles Brandon—holds a place at the court of Henry VIII. News of a terrible deal reaches the King. Of four combatants, only two come out alive, one so horribly disfigured that he might better have been killed. The survivor, Charles Brandon, is much talked about for his heroism.

THAT night we had a grand banquet and dance at Westminster, and the next day we all, excepting Lady Mary, went back to Greenwich by boat, paying a farthing a head for our fare. This was just after the law fixing the boat fare and the watermen were a quarreling lot; you may be sure. One farthing from Westminster to Greenwich. Eight miles. No wonder they were angry.

Her greatest beauty was her glowing dark hair, and her smile with an extraordinary glow from beneath her natural, no longer innocent, grin that she never even saw.

Her face was soft and full, and, except where angry, was a tender smile that was not too far from a laughing face. She was a most adorable center, and knew her prime full well. Although she did not know the word because the Taylor sisters, all preferring to command rather than suggest.

As before, however, she had reached her final purpose—she had obtained possession of the letter which would have been given to her and sent away at once by her father's own hand.

"Now then," said the young woman, "I must write your mother something, so that she will know where you are."

"No," answered the poor girl; "it is better that she should never hear of me again than that I should be obliged to tell her that I am dead."

"But what if she asks after you?"

"Then I will say nothing."

"What! even if she writes to you?"

"Yes, even if she writes to me."

Did cave men love?—They were exempt from pain of the mind at all events. Civilization has augmented the mental anguishes, and pleasures of love, and when civilization is in excess it certainly disturbs and perverts the whole passion.

WE hope there is no Mother who thinks she can treat her sick baby without calling in a Physician, or with remedies that she uses for herself.

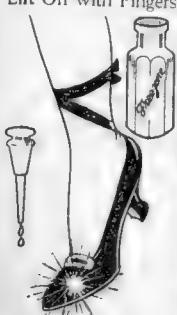

Most Mothers know that Baby requires remedies especially prepared for babies, yet there are some who think that what is good enough for them is good enough for Baby, and it is to these Mothers we appeal to give nothing to their babies that is not specially prepared for babies or recommended by their Physician.

False claims may kill, but false claims can never restore your child.

For over thirty years Fletcher's Castoria has been aiding in the reduction of the deaths among infants as Mothers have become more and more acquainted with it. Always keep it in the house.

That was a pretty horrible thing to do. I know also that she had forgotten many traditions of womanly dignity in order to make a man aware of the fact that she had agreed to the point of demoralization.

That was better, even a little better, than the first. But now she had been completely revealed to me. This woman who had undoubtedly been the most beautiful girl in the world had been so completely put down at that time that Tom didn't care for her at all. I don't know how was any way and I know how low.

Twice Tom had been brutally frank about this. I wondered if he had received it. I knew it to be true. I knew that the woman who had been a perfect thing in my eyes was now a thing that I could well consider. I knew that she had been so put down in that time that I could see Tom actually throw the love she offered back in her face. But

CASTORIA

Mothers Must Use Care.

Why do we so often call your attention to imitations of Fletcher's Castoria? Because it is a baby's medicine and imitations are always dangerous, particularly imitations of a remedy for infants.

Your druggist may not keep an imitation but they are to be found on a drug-store shelves. Reliable druggists think only of the welfare of their customers. The other kind only of the gross profit to be made on imitations.

Your own judgment tells you that Fletcher's Castoria having been for over thirty years at great expense held up its reputation, must jealously guard it. Then, it follows that this company must use the very best of material. Must employ experts in the selection of the herbs. Must retain skilled chemists in its manufacture.

Your same good judgment must tell you that these irresponsible imitators are trading on your credulity and the reputation built up by Mr. Fletcher, during all these years, for his Castoria.

He caught Bush unawares, smearing a fast ball, and timing it perfectly. Frisch couldn't come through, just then, Bush's speed was too much and he raised an easy fly for Ward. Photograph shows Groh putting up at third, with Giant coaches warning him not to try to score. Umpire Owens is shown back of third base. (International News Reel photo.)

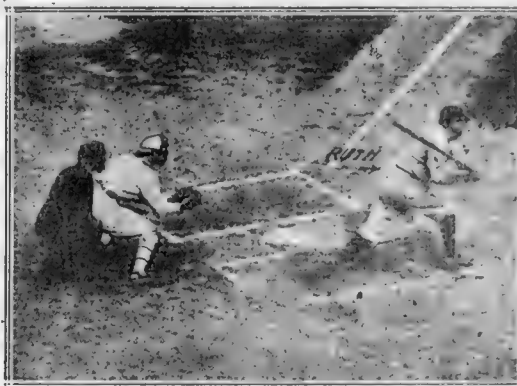

DUGAN OUT AT SECOND! IN THE FOURTH inning, Dugan, Yankee third baseman, came to bat. He slashed a bouncer past Pitcher Nehf for a clean hit. Babe Ruth swung hard at the first ball, "topped" it, and Frisch forced Dugan with a toss to Starosta. (International News Reel Photo.)

FEATHERY
Tonight Miss Louise Brown, pretty Boston amateur dancer, whom the dancing masters pick as one of the most talented of the city's younger dancers. She has just returned from a course of study at Mariendon, Farnborough, N.H.

BIG GAME DRAWS CELEBRITIES FROM ALL sections of the United States! Among the prominent folk present were General Pershing, Mrs. Knickerbocker, Mountain Landis and Judge Landis, who declared after the game that it was one of the best that they had ever witnessed. Mrs. Landis has become a dyed-in-the-wool fan.

THE PEERLESS BAMBINI FANS ON HIS FIRST TIME UP! IN THE FIRST STENGEL made a nice catch of Wit's line to centre. Groh then tossed out Dugan. There were plenty of cheers like those that greeted the famous "Crash" when the Babe countered out to the plate. One strike, another, and Ruth swung viciously again—but it connected with nothing but the thin air. There were no cheers as the Yankee retired.

DRESS AND GROW THIN!

Fashion experts today are supplementing the advice of the dieticians in aiding Missy to retain her appearance of youthful slenderness. This pretty afternoon dress, for instance, robs the stout women of her full figure look without the evils of "facing." The garment is fashioned of blue and white serge, trimmed with fringe. A belt of braid adds to the slender appearance of the wearer. (International News Reel.)

FORBES' VIEWS ON FINANCE

By R. C. Forbes

A merchant can open more than one store in his own name, to a manufacturer can establish factories in as many places as he chooses. An investment banking house is at liberty to open branch offices all over the world.

There is, in other words, freedom for the exercise of enterprise and the building up of business.

But a "thou shalt not" resolution was passed yesterday, despite vigorous protests by the American Bankers' Association, a resolution against the granting of freedom to open branch banks.

Here is the resolution: "Resolved, by the American Bankers' Association, that we view with alarm the establishment of branch banking in the United States and the attempt to permit and legalize branch banking; that we hereby express our disapproval of and opposition to branch banking in any form by state or national banks in any manner."

"Resolved, that we regard branch banking or the establishment of additional branches as detrimental to the best interests of the people of the United States. Branch banking is contrary to public policy, violates the basic principle of our government, and concentrates the credit of the nation and the power of money in the hands of a few."

There are fully 25,000 member banks of the American Bankers' Association. Of these, 25,000 are State banks. Not more than 1 per cent. of these members are located in large, powerful banks located in large cities.

The bankers gave a tremendous welcome to President McKenna, head of Britain's largest bank, when he rose, before an assembly gathering of the bankers, to talk on "Reparation and International Finance." Mr. McKenna, a fine specimen of the highly educated Briton of notable achievement in public life, he rose to be the equivalent of our secretary of the treasury and he is now the dominating head of the world's largest bank.

Mr. McKenna, in a long, carefully prepared speech, set up his declaration: "The conclusion to which I am driven is that Germany can only pay whatever she owes in foreign balances together with such amounts as she can realize by the sale of her remaining foreign securities that she must be able to make a market for the stabilization of the mark; that this is the only way to insure the stabilization of the mark; that this is the only way to insure the stabilization of the mark; that this is the only way to insure the stabilization of the mark."

Further, that England has the capacity to pay to the United States interest and sinking fund on her debt; but that the other debtors are none of them in a position to meet more than a small part of their external liabilities, and in the existing condition of Europe a definite cessation of any payment by them is desirable to the interests of the United States. The actual amount which the other debtors could ultimately pay would, as in the case of Germany, be ascertained by inquiry into their exportable resources and a frank conference between creditors and debtors."

"I don't know how we have any authentic foundation, but whispers are based around Washington that high-ups at Washington are now saying privately that by the way steps must be instituted with a view to reach some workable practical basis with them, our foreign debtors who are broke."

REAL ESTATE HAPPENINGS

The popularity of West Roxbury as indicated by the numerous sales of houses there during the past few years continues to be a topic of interest among all who follow the real estate market. The "Golden Age of Boston," because of its high, beautiful elevation, it has been designated as a community of single houses of average cost. Thousands of dollars have been spent by the city authorities improving streets and installing water mains. Construction work on the sewage system is well underway and proceeding rapidly.

The original development of this town was begun by the Securities Real Estate Trust. As laid out there have been two thousand building lots placed for the tract. About 100 have been sold so far this year and about 150 remain to be sold. Heldon has a development of this tract completed in such a short time.

To close out the remaining lots the Securities Real Estate Trust Company plans to conduct a special sale during the next ten days, during which the balance of the building lots will be offered at reduced prices. The lots will be shown every afternoon and all day Friday by Mr. Mayne from the office at 100 Grove street, and by Mr. Mayne from the office at 100 Grove street.
